 Recognize Recycling Award Winners and Climate Protection Champions

STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Approve the Requested Actions

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY: The Environmental Services Department's (ESD) Annual Waste Reduction and Recycling Awards Program recognizes local businesses, military operations, schools, organizations, and individuals that have taken an environmental leadership role by implementing innovative and successful programs in waste reduction, recycling, and environmentally preferable purchasing. The efforts of these organizations and individuals help the City achieve its waste reduction and recycling goals, reduce greenhouse gas emissions and extend the life of the Miramar Landfill.

ESD will also highlight the second annual San Diego Climate Protection Champion Award. This award recognizes a group or organization who has committed much of its time to reducing greenhouse gas emissions in the community. Applicants included local businesses, nonprofit organizations and schools. (Attachment One)

On April 22, 2008, the 16th Annual Waste Reduction and Recycling Award Winners and the Climate Protection Champion Award Winners will be recognized by Mayor Jerry Sanders and Council President Scott Peters before City Council.
